

Children's Online Resources

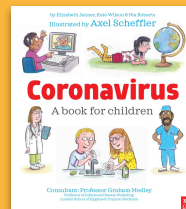

Check out these fun, online activities for children!

Want to know more about COVID-19? And what you can do to get through the pandemic? Learn the do's and don'ts to help your family stay safe.

Explore the wonderful world of children's literature! KidLitTV utilizes technology such as videos and podcasts to promote children's literature and inspire kids to read, write, and draw.

Learn everything you and your child need to know about the coronavirus including what it is, how it spreads, how it affects the outside world and how you can help.

For as long as schools are closed, Audible is open! Kids can explore a vast array of stories, all available for free on desktops, laptops and tablets, so that they can continue dreaming and learning.

Storytime with Ryan and Craig is a free, short-form reading show for children and parents, where the two comedians use larger than life personas to make reading engaging and fun!

Bedtime FM is an independent podcast producer who creates original content for children of all ages. Each show is usually 20 minutes or less, so that children can be as engaged as possible.

TIME for Kids is bringing their acclaimed, trusted journalism to homes for the first time in its 25 years of publication. When you sign up, you will have access to four grade specific issues of TIME for Kids and Your $.